Financial Capacity

Please note that it is your responsibility to determine what your total costs will be to live and study in Australia. This includes total course fees for you and any family members, living costs and travel costs regardless of whether your dependents intend to accompany you to Australia.

The table below includes amounts set out on the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) website: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500#HowTo> as expected costs for international students in Australia.

You must provide documentary evidence that you have genuine access to enough funds to cover expenses for the first year of your course in Australia. Even if you have permission to work in Australia as a student, but you must not rely on getting part-time work to support yourself in Australia as a student, because getting a part time work is not guaranteed.

Refer to the step by step Student Visa Subclass 500 application and Document Checklist Tool (<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/web-evidentiary-tool>) for details on how to provide the evidence required to cover the costs of your stay, including your travel, study and living expenses.

From October 2019, the 12-months living cost are:

Expenses	Per Person	Amount Required in AUD $
Travel	Applicant	1 return airfare to Australia
	Family members	1 return airfare to Australia per person
Tuition	Applicant	Course fees (annual tuition fee)
	School age children 5-18	$8,000 per year
Living	Applicant	$21,041 per year
	Partner	$7,362 per year
	Child	$3,152per year

5.1: Are you aware of the total cost of tuition, living expenses, Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) and other costs involved to undertake study at Liberty College for yourself and any dependents?

No

Yes. If yes, who will finance your studies, living and travel expenses in Australia?

Name of the finance supporter:

Relationship with the student:

5.2: What do you expect your total expenses to be for the duration of your stay in Australia (this will be including all the costs for any dependents)?
